Rachel Morton Returns To Area

Twenty years ago Rachel Morton left Carmel and her lovely home on the sand dunes at Sand and Sea where she had been the original occupant, and moved to Long Beach.

Miss Morton had come to Carmel after eight years in Europe. For three years she was the protegee of the famous tenor, Jean de Reszke, in Nice, France. She made her operatic debut in the Opera of Nice in "Die Walkurie" by Wagner.

After de Reszke's death she went to England where for five years she sang leading Wagnerian roles, also "Tosca" and "Aida" with the British National Opera Company and with the Covent Garden Opera company under such famous conductors as Sir John Barbirolli, Sir Malcolm Sargent, Sir Henry Wood and Sir Adrian Boult.

While in England she was honored by an invitation for dinner at Clarence House by H.R.H. The Duke of Connought, youngest son of Queen Victoria. After dinner she sang a program for the guests, among whom were three royal princesses: Princess Mary Lascelles, sister of King George IV; Princess Patricia, daughter of the Duke of Connought; and Princess Ingrid of Sweden, now Queen of Denmark.

In Long Beach, Miss Morton was for eight years music critic of The Independent-Press Telegram. During that time she interviewed the famous musicians of the world for her Sunday column called "Major and Minor Notes by Rachel Morton".

She was also program chairman for two years each for the Long Beach Woman's Music Club and the Long Beach Musical Arts Club.

During her eight years' residence in Carmel she taught singing and was for four years soloist at the Christian Science Church of Carmel.

Miss Morton has named her new home in the Carmel Valley, "Valhalla" which means "Valley of the gods."

"The Wagnerian roles I sang," said Miss Morton, "were all associated with Valhalla, and here, surrounded as I am with the beautiful mountains, I feel at home again and very close to God."

Surfing Contest

Saturday, November 4, has been set by the Inter-Peninsula Surfing Society as the date for its first of a series of six inter-club contests this year. This first contest will take place at 11th Street in Carmel, surf permitting. The contest is open to club members only and the first heat will "break the ice" at dawn. At stake are several trophies and the titles of best Men's (18 and over) and Jr. Men's (under 18) surfers in the club. The purpose of this contest is to promote the competitive spirit of surfing in the participant and spectator alike. I.P.S.S. intends to follow-up, in the near future, with a Peninsula wide contest, which will be open to all local residents.

Good Carmel Goblins This Halloween

The goblins of Carmel were relatively quiet this Halloween compared to the past when they dumped pumpkins by the dozens at the top of Carmel Hill to watch them splatter and tumble down the road. Only a few pumpkins were found along the road in this area.

Gone are the days (we hope) when the mischievous teenage goblins found great delight in waxing and soaping windows of Carmel businesses, and strewing large quantities of garbage along Ocean Avenue.

This is not to say that all was calm. There were spotted cases of over ripe avocados being smeared on cars, tomatoes thrown against garage doors, eggs heaved at automobiles, and shaving cream lather on the streets and cars. Some of the more bold goblins rang door bells and as the occupant opened the door, water filled balloons were thrown inside.

But these activities were the exception this year rather than the rule, and the Carmel teenagers should be commended. But not much can be said for the Pacific Grove, Monterey and Seaside people because there were many reported cases of destruction and injury.

The Carmel Police Department made no arrests. Captain Ellis said, "We did send several teenagers home, and we escorted a car load of fellows from Seaside out of our city limits . . . along with their eggs." He went on to say that this Halloween "was quieter than usual . . . and the streets were clear before the curfew was over."

Much of the relative calm was due to the numerous scheduled youth activities. It is possible, however, some kids stayed in their sincere pumpkin patches in hopes of seeing the Great Pumpkin.

Frohman Looks For Actors

Frohman Productions is calling for Peninsula actors and actresses to take part in a motion picture based on James Thurber's short story, "Many Moons."

The full-length film calls for a cast of an elderly, small-bodied, irascible king; a childlike princess; a middle-aged jester; three old wise men and their wives, and a boy. If you are interested in this movie, which by the way is planned for possible showing on educational television after being premiered on the Peninsula early next year, call 372-0118 for information on auditions.

LIGHT FOUNDATION

The Light Foundation of Spiritual Research and Healing of Carmel will have an Open Forum at Grant Hall November 5 at 7:00 p.m. The subject of the lecture will be "How to Demonstrate the God Within" led by Dorie and Andre D'Angelo. Work shops are held at 3-Rings Book Shop on Wednesday and Fridays at 7:45.

Sunset Rezoning

We (Carmel Citizens) all were jammed into the City Hall chambers last Wednesday afternoon, awaiting the Planning Commission's verdict of whether or not to re-zone Sunset commercial.

We learned that the Planning Commission recommends Sunset be re-zoned . . . but not into a commercial zone as most Carmel citizens think. It will be something in between Commercial and Residential. Also, it was brought out that the Carmel Cultural Commission, the Planning Commission and the City Council all will have a "say-so" as to what person or business is desirable before they are admitted to rent space at Sunset.

It would be advisable for each Carmel Citizen interested in the re-zoning to drop by the City Hall and pick up a copy of the proposed ordinance.

CBA To Elect Officials

The Carmel Business Association recently sent out ballots to its membership for the election of the executive committee.. The members were instructed to vote for four of the five candidates who are: Don Chapman, James Peter Cost, Stan Ewig, Ashton Stanley, and Carolyn Vogel.

The Association also reminded the members of the Annual Christmas Dinner-Dance at the Beach Club scheduled for November 30.

December 1 is the evening for the "Light Up Carmel". All Carmel business are encouraged to light and decorate their windows. Cash awards will be presented to the top three windows on December 15.

Party For Yacht Club

"The Commodores' Party" for Stillwater Yacht Club members was given by outgoing commodore Mark Raggett on Friday at their Pebble Beach home.

Thomas McCullough of Pebble Beach was chosen the new commodore; Dr. Charles Snorf, vice commodore; M. C. Jenkins, secretary; Mark Raggett, treasurer; Tim Condon, port captain; Dick Clark, fleet captain for Mercuries; and Lawrence Washburn, fleet captain for larger boats.

Thomas K. Perry, Carmel attorney, was among the 1,200 who sailed on the Queen Mary last Monday on her final voyage, to terminate in Long Beach.

WEATHER

Mostly sunny, day temperatures in high 70s, nights to 45 degrees. No smog in Carmel but drive north, south or east and you will find plenty.

MOVIE REVIEW

ROUGH NIGHT IN JERICHO, Martin portrays a law man turned town boss who stops at nothing, even murder, to enforce his despotism.

BONNIE & CLYDE. Buck told corny jokes, Blanche was a preacher's daughter who kept her fingers in her ears during gunfights. Sunday nights they listened to radio. All in all, they killed eighteen people. Strange gang.

TO SIR, WITH LOVE reminds you of what really warm good movies are like. It is a beautiful movie and perfect from top to bottom with lot of mod action.

POINT BLANK, a powerful suspense drama was shot at Alcatraz last spring. Lee Marvin plays a man double-crossed by his wife and business partner.

REFLECTIONS IN A GOLDEN EYE. Strange passions tear at Marlon Brando and Elizabeth Taylor as a couple in conflict in a peacetime army post. Produced by Ray Stark from Carson McCuller's explosive novel.

CRAZY QUILT, in and about San Francisco, and based on a story by psychiatrist Allen Whellis. The movie received rave reviews in New York. Based on a story, The Illusionless Man and the Visionary Maid, it is a very tender tale requiring utmost discipline to make it appealing.

THE TRIP, Peter Fonda stars as a young man escaping personal problems through the use of hallucinatory drugs.

"THE TAMING OF THE SHREW", a comedy by Shakespeare, has had audiences laughing for almost 400 years. The shrew is evil-tempered Katharina. In the motion picture version, Elizabeth Taylor is the shrew. And the man who tames her, Petruchio, is played by Richard Burton. The Shakespearean lovers, Petruchio and Kate, are as famous in their fashion as Romeo and Juliet.

Taming of The Shrew

The screenplay writers, "with acknowledgements to William Shakespeare without they would have been at a loss for words", are likely to delight modern audiences with their adaptation of "The Taming of the Sherw".

The subject of the play and motion picture—the sometimes misunderstood business of love and marriage—was old in Shakespeare's day; but the twists in plot he gave it, and the lines he wrote, account for the long life of "The Taming of the Shrew".

Tri Delt Pledge

Miss Judith Peden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Peden of Carmel Highlands, has pledged Delta Delta Sorority at the University of the Pacific, Stockton.

Mr. Peden is the manager of the new PINECONE-Branding-Iron Restaurant in Del Monte Center. He is the former owner of Peden's Restaurant in Hanford, California, recommended by Duncan Hines.

A great success story high above Carmel Valley?

The new adult residential community Del Mesa Carmel is a "best-seller". It was quietly opened to the public just a few months ago. A surprising number of residences were sold within weeks. Inquiries came from as far away as New York and Boston. Only one advertisement appeared in local newspapers. But a mailing list of several hundred had been built-up from casual callers who had seen our "meadow in the sky" and our plans. Now even on days when the weather-man turns the other way, people take the beautiful, winding driveway up to the top to see if we have what they've heard we have. We have . . . so they're still coming!

The reasons are simple: an inspirating location 400 bove Carmel Valley, fresh, imaginative planning and e best of everything in carpeting, fixtures, closet ll modern housekeeping facilities. Large Donation by Symphony Guild

Looking very glamorous in a long gown with green sequin top, Mrs. George E. Fletcher, president of the Symphony Guild, presented a check for $6355.40 to Mr. James M. R. Glaser, president of the Monterey County Symphony Association, on the stage of Sunset Auditorium before the concert began last week.

Fifteen hundred of this was from a reserve built up from earnings over the past five years, she said. Twenty-five hundred represented earnings from the snack bar, the remainder from a variety of fund raising activities.

Mr. Glaser welcomed the audience warmly and introduced new conductor, Jan deJong, new concertmaster, Michael Rosenker, and their wives.

Middle School Book Favorites

"Children are not always reading light, funny books," said Miss Jo Brazell, reading chairman at Middle School and president of the Monterey Peninsula chapter of IRA (International Reading Association).

"They are impressed by personal problems and tragedy, as expressed in some of their favorites": Jenny Kimura" by Betty Covanna, about the problems of children of Japanese-American intermarriage; "Charlotte's Web" by E. B. White; Death Be Not Proud by John Gunther, The Hobbit and Trilogy by Tolkien, favorites of children, parents and teachers, and anything by Schultz which the children are beginning to analyze.

"We are getting away from book lists and reading by grades," said Miss Brazell, "out of reading fiction tion."

"My children are helping me to evaluate the State Adoption lists, some 2800 text and library books," she said.

An overall view of the Rancho Point Lobos Polo Club grounds, a mile south of Carmel on Highway One. The occasion, the first annual horse show with classes for working hunters, equitation on the flat and over fences, pairs over fences, English trail, hunt teams of three and hunter class.

Sue Sally Hale's Rancho Point Lobos team of 35 young riders competed against some 35 riders from Woodside, Los Gatos, Palo Alto, Santa Cruz, Laguna Seca, Pebble Beach and Carmel Valley clubs.

An exhibition polo match featured Sue Sally Hale, for a long time the only woman to play polo, Sally Hudson, Betsy Harkins and Joellen Mooney in red and white checked team hats, against Ray Sumida, Dan Hudson, John Walworth, and Don Waring.

Gale Henderson, who has been riding at Mrs. Hale's for five years, and Betsy Risser arranged the jumps and courses, classes and events. Connie Dudley was in charge of programs, advertising, invitations and silver trophies. All the young people pitched in and helped.

Mrs. Thomson Hudson, Mrs. Seizo Kodani and Mrs. Ukeo Sumida planned the food booths and Mrs. Robert Cotchett served as finance chairman. Judge was Tony Vacek from Woodside.

Comic Opera by Choral Society

The second annual Festival of Renaissance Music to be presented by the Monterey Peninsula Choral Society under the direction of Jan deJong, will be held at the First Methodist Church of Pacific Grove the weekend of November 10th.

On Friday evening and Sunday afternoon, the 90-voice Choral Society will perform with the festival brass ensemble and Kenneth Ahrens on the Swain and Kates pipe organ. There will also be solos by the organ and brass ensemble. Members of the Choral Society will sing in madrigal groups and in antiphonal choirs with brass and organ.

Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m., there will be a panel presentation with illustrations and excerpts by the soloists from the opera to be given in the evening, by Albert Seay, professor of music at Colorado College, Colorado Springs. Robert Commanday, music critic of the San Francisco Chronicle, and deJong will participate. Seay rediscovered the comic opera "Don Trastullo" by Niccolo Jomelli, while doing research in Europe last year. He has prepared the score and the English translation for this premiere.

Soloists for the opera at 8 p.m. Saturday are Marian Marsh, lyric soprano, Orva Hoskinson, tenor, and Walter Matthes, bass. Margaret Fabrizio, harpsichordist, will be featured. Costumes, scenery and staging are under the direction of Gale Peterson, assisted by Shirley Eoff of White Oaks Theatre.

Tickets are available from The Jewel Box, Carmel, or Thunderbird Book Store, Carmel Valley and Pebble Beach.

"Wading" by Keith Lindberg

Keith Lindberg, one of the Peninsula's most noteworthy young artists, is in the second week of his one man show at Laky Galleries in Carmel, showing in Laky's new, spacious wing which was recently completed. Lindberg is a member of the board of directors of the Carmel Art Association and is an instructor of life drawing at the adult school here. He received his training at the Kansas City Art Institute and the Chicago Art Institute, and moved to Carmel five years ago to devote full time to his work . . . a result is a magnificent show at Laky Galleries.

Crossroads

"Ferme Vendenne" is an example from the collection at The Crossroads Gallery. This is a somber but powerful oil done by Enrico Campagnola. The texture is most interesting, as if perhaps sand had been mixed into the oil media.

The Crossroads Gallery, on the lower level of the Carmel Plaza, shows a distinctive collection of contemporary European artists, chosen with great discrimination by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fenton, in their travels abroad.

The paintings range from delightful Napoleonic soldiers and horsemen by Eugene Pechambes to impressionistic still life, city and country scenes by George Rival, Oliver Foss and Enrico Campagnola. There is also an excellent collection of antiques, both European and oriental.

Boyer Show in Santa Ana

"CONTRASTS IN LATIN AMERICA," paintings in watercolors and oils by Louise Cardeiro Boyer will be exhibited at the Charles W. Bowers Memorial Museum from November 4th through the 26th. This collection of recent paintings by Boyer will be her first showing in Southern California.

Though now a resident of Carmel, Mrs. Boyer's work has been exhibited at a number of galleries across the United States, in Mexico, Guatemala and Germany.

Paintings Shown At Sunset Center

Marlinde von Ruhs and Edith Truesdell plan to show recent paintings from November 4 through December 2 from 2 to 5 p.m. daily except Mondays, Sundays and Thanksgiving Day.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

"Feeding the Crowd Painlessly"

Getting ready for the holiday months ahead is a time consuming process unless well planned and executed. Toward this end, we're giving some recipes that can be easily served, prepared with your facilities and within your budget.

Over the years many foods have assumed a traditional place in American cookery. High on the list of long favorites are pork and beans and apple pie. To make it even easier, especially for young people's gatherings over weekend sports events, feature a main dish of Steak and Beans Duet accompanied by a crisp salad of lettuce and cucumber and the inevitably popular apple pie. Thanks to a newer American way of life, you can now prepare a buffet party with convenience foods requiring very little time and effort. For the main dish, briefly cook cube steak cut into strips, green onion and garlic. Then stir in canned pork and beans in tomato sauce. Those plump tender beans are already in a rich-rosy expertly seasoned sauce.

Steak and Bean Duet

Eight cube steaks (about ¼ lb. each), cut in thin strips; 1 cup sliced green onion; 2 garlic cloves, minced; 2 tbsps. shortening; 4 cans (1 lb., each,) pork and beans with tomato sauce. Serves 12. Hot corn bread made from a mix goes A-1 with this savory duet.

In large camp-size frypan, saute steak, onion and garlic in shortening until tender. Add beans, heat and stir over medium fire until very hot and bubbly. Serve right from skillet or transfer to heatproof serving dish kept hot on electric server. Pour steak and beans over hot corn bread squares, open face.

Another "instant" dish for limited incomes, is

Pronto Baked Beans

One cup chopped onion; 4 tbsps. butter or margarine; 3 tbsps. flour; chili powder, salt and pepper to taste or about 2 tsps. chili powder; ½ tsp. salt and ¼ tsp. pepper; 1 large can undiluted evaporated milk; 2 cans (8 oz., each) tomato sauce; 1 cup grated American cheese; 2 cans (1 lb., 12 oz., each) baked beans, drained; frankfurter rolls; mustard; pickle relish. Serves 12.

Saute onion in butter until crisp-tender. Quickly stir in flour and seasonings. Gradually stir in evaporated milk and tomato sauce. Cook, stirring, until mixture slowly comes to a boil. Add cheese and beans and cook, stirring until heated through to serving temperature and cheese is golden brown. Serve over opened toasted frankfurter rolls with mustard and pickle relish on the side.

You can, of course, skip the salad and serve crisp vegetable nibbles instead. These give the hostess many advantages. They taste good, are easy to prepare and are non-fattening, a fact that

The Complete Gardener

. . . a regular diet of information having to do with plants

In our gardens we aim for variety, and we have a wide range of plants . . . grasses, annuals, perennials, shrubs, vines and trees. We try to have flowers and fruits through the season, and ornamentals for sun and shade. Except for our lawns the total number of plants is small and we can treat them individually. We have little choice in selecting our garden soils. Once the location of the house is fixed we must take the soils we find and make the best of them. The "air drainage" of the garden affects its frostiness. If the garden is relatively high on a slope the cold air moves or drains away from it into the low ground, so that plants escape the late-spring and early autumn frosts that kill plants in the low ground. Plants growing on muck soils in low ground are even more subject to frost damage than those growing on mineral soils.

Plants need protection from competing roots, wind and animals. Azaleas grow well among oak trees, but roses do not. Yet azaleas grow poorly in competition with elm or maple roots. In fact, elms, maples, poplars and willows are not recommended for small gardens. Even small plants can rob each other and, unless the roots of strong growers are kept pruned, they take over in a mixed garden.

Tillage is commonly the first step in preparing a garden soil. Organic matter, fertilizers, and other soil amendments are usually mixed in the soil at the same time. The objectives of tillage are to produce and maintain as deep a rooting zone of fertile, granular soil as possible, to control weeds, and to maintain a uniformity of moisture. Considering the soil most gardeners have this means working in a great deal of organic matter, not just once, but often. It is usually convenient to apply fertilizers and conditioners, besides organic matter, to the lower layers while spading. Most plant nutrients, in time, are carried down into the soil by rains and irrigation, if applied to the surface.

Garden planning is great sport and the challenge continues at every turn of the spade. All sorts of adages can apply: Honesty is the best policy and look before you leap.

"An Evening with Bishop Myers"

Next Wednesday evening at 8:00 p.m. in the Sunset Auditorium the new Episcopal Bishop of California, C. Kilmer Myers, will appear in a public forum. He will discuss and answer questions from the audience about the Ecumenical movement and the Papacy, as well as to the political and religious scene in America. The public is invited, free of charge.

Trout Catchables

Monterey County had 77,786 trout planted in its streams by the Department of Fish and Game this year. Upper and Lower Arroyo Seco Creek, Big Sur River, Carmel River, Los Padres Reservoir and Upper Nacimiento River are the places stocked, 10% of which are trophy size.

Stevenson entered only enght varsity speakers. Winners for the school included Lonnie Foy and Joel Harris with two victories each, high places for Bruce Decker, Bill Hand, Jack Booth, Bill Kondrat, Claude Wynn and Geoff Haynes. West Clark in his first tournament made the semi-finals.

even small children are conscious of today. Offer a tray of cherry tomatoes, celery, sliced fresh mushrooms, carrot sticks, flowerettes of cauliflower and broccoli (all raw) and for the brave, deadly little chili pepers (with a warning sign over them!) Outsize salt shakers are all one needs as a "dip".

Short-order cooks can see at a glance why these recipes are painless! The apple pie is brought frozen and only needs a short stay in the oven!

Frohman Auditions

All actors and actresses take heed! Frohman Productions, Inc., a local professional film company, is preparing to produce a full-length motion picture film, using LOCAL ACTING TALENT. The projected film is a children's story, based on an original theme by James Thurber, and will be fimed entirely on location in and around the Monterey Peninsula.

Actors and actresses, and others interested in motion picture production are asked to contact the company for interviews and auditions. The telephone number is 372-4803.

Checking plans for the new intensive care unit proposed at Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula are, left to right, Dr. Daniel Waligora, Dr. Russell Williams and Dudley Swim, the latter of whom has just donated a heart monitoring system which incorporates a pacemaker to make the heart beat at the required rate.

Life-Saving Gift to Community Hospital

Community Hospital has installed the latest heart monitoring system. It can monitor four heart patients at the same time.

The equipment has been presented to the hospital by Dudley Swim of Carmel Vallel, who contributed a similar heart monitoring machine several years ago.

With the new system there is a screen at the nursing station by which the heart pattern of four patients can be observe simultaneously.

It is estimated that up to 30 per cent of the patients who would have died under conventional method of heart care can be saved through use of the new system.

Electrodes are taped to the skin of the patient and the heart-beat is transmitted by closed circuit television to the nursing station as well as to a bedside monitor. The device provides a continuous electrocardiograph.

In the event the heartbeat should slow down or speed up, the machine can work as a pacemaker, providing electrical stimulant to the heart to make it beat at the required rate.

Nurses at the hospital have been specially trained by the doctors in coronary care employing the new system.

Christian Science Sermon

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of this week's Bible Lesson to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Isaiah: "Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?"

Vladimir Ashkenazy to perform at Sunset

Soviet Pianist in Carmel Concert

Vladimir Ashkenazy, famed world pianist born in the U.S.S.R. is slated for a Carmel concert on November 8th, opening the Carmel Music Society's 1967-1968 season. The event is scheduled for 8:30 at Sunset Auditorium.

Under the management of S. Hurok, the artist is making an extended tour of the United States and Canada.

Ashkenazy was winner of the Queen Elizabeth Competition in Brussels in 1956. In 1962 he was awarded First Prize in the Second Tchaikowsky Competition in Moscow, the contest which launched Van Cliburn to fame four years earlier.

He has been hailed by the New York Times as "a young poet of the piano" on one of his previous appearances in this country, and the Boston Herald reported "he ranks with the world masters."

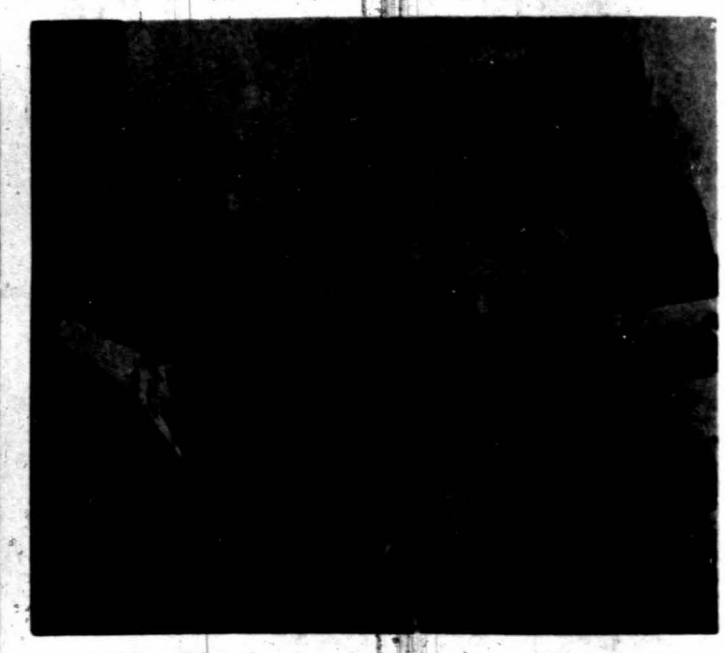
He will play the Schubert Sonata No. 3, Twelve Etudes by Chopin, and the Sonata No. 7 by Prokofieff.

A limited number of Carmel Music Society's season tickets are available at the Friar Tuck Book Store, Mission and 6th, (624-4930).

Sonic Booms to End

Congressman Burt Talcott assures us that Sonic Booms over the area has been brought to a halt. The reason: the Air Force has completed their program of test and evaluation of the SR-71 program.

Pianists Eden and Tamir will play Brahms and Schumann



Duo Pianist and Chamber Singers in Friday Concert

A unique musical ensemble, calling themselves the "Liebeslieder Waltzes," after Brahms Opus 52 of the same name, will be presented by the Monterey Peninsula Concert Association Friday evening, November 3, at 8:15 p.m. at the Pacific Grove Junior High School Auditorium as the second of the current series, open to members of the Association and to members of other similar associations on a space available basis.

Pianists Eden and Tamir, two of Israel's and Europe's most arresting talents, will appear with the Camerata Chamber Singers in a program devoted principally to Brahams and Schumann music, composed especially for four voices and four hands.

The Camerata Chamber Singers—Michele Mosmann, soprano, Ruth Conway, contralto, Richard Levitt, tenor, and Rodney Stenborg, bass—were created under the direction of Abraham Kaplan.

Ansel Adam's photo book "Fiat Lux," a contemporary impression of the University of California, will be published November 7 by McGraw-Hill. Nancy Newhall contributed the text of this very interesting book, which was three years in the making. It represents "a comprehensive survey of the total University and its effect on the people and land of California."

Reduced rates for many out-of-state long distance telephone calls went into effect November 1. The new rate schedule also introduces a new "Midnight-to-7 a.m." rate for dialed calls: a maximum 75c initial charge anywhere in the United States.

The Friends of Sculptors benefit auction at Cannery Row Sunday afternoon was a blast, what with loud music, entertainment both by professionals and colorful characters in the crowd. But by 3:30 p.m. over three thousand had been netted for the burned out sculptors by the auctioning of paintings and pottery donated by fellow artists and craftsmen, according to Stephen Brown, curator of the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art, co-sponsors.

Pearl Buck looked regal in a long green gown as she sat (due to a broken ankle) to address her large audience at MPC Saturday evening.

If missionaries had not divided China, she said, Communism could not have come in so easily. She traced the way different conquerors of China had been absorbed, by the Chinese who are "ruthlessly kind". She feels that Communism will also go the same route.

She made a special appeal in behalf of Eurasian children of American servicemen.

Every so often Carmel residents are bothered by campers parked near their homes with people sleeping inside them . . . especially evident during the summer months. According to Assemblyman Alan Pattee campers or mobile homes parked in front of residences in unincorporated areas is now against the law. Effective date is November 8.

Pebble Beach Golf Links, Spyglass Hill Golf Course, Cypress Country Club, the Seventeen Mile Drive, world famous Del Monte Lodge, and the beautiful Beach Club are within five miles of the site. Carmel, historic Monterey, Pacific Grove, Carmel Valley, the jet served Monterey County Airport, and the awe inspiring Big Sur country are all within minutes.

This program will appeal to both the "weekenders" or second home buyers and also to the year-round residents who no longer are interested in yard work and exterior maintenance, but who prefer to spend their leisure time enjoying the many pleasures of the Monterey Peninsula.

The homes have been designed to provide large entertaining areas, attractive modern kitchens, luxurious dressing and bath areas, large bedrooms, ample closets, attached two-car garage, fireplaces, and many other fine features.

Country Club Gate will be surrounded by a scenic forest greenbelt in perpetuity and will be a charming, sealed, park like area. The ground is being leased from Del Monte Properties on a long term basis (98 years), and the monthly ground rental per unit will be nominal. All exterior maintenance and garden up-keep will be contracted for and each home owner will pay his share of the cost to the condominium association.

Grandeur, Spanish style, yours in richly carved oak. SEGOVIA by Thomasville

This is furniture with a regal splendor rarely found these days. Picture the dramatic impression it will make in your own home. Baroque patterns carved in solid oak do credit to Thomasville craftsmen. The proportions are imposing; the embellishments are elaborate in detail. And the beautifully turned spindles and exaggerated curves are characteristic of the Mediterranean mood. Veneers and solids are oak and the Flemish finish is the dark, fumed color of fine old paneling. There's a sophisticated brushed Parchment finish, too, with accent color trim. Segovia is such an exciting collection, you should see it right away!

AN OPEN LETTER TO A DISCOURAGED YOUNGSTER

Dear Kid:

Today you came to me for a job. From the look of your shoulders as you walked out, I suspect you've been turned down before, and maybe you believe by now that kids out of high school can't find work.

But, I hired a teenager today. You saw him. He was the one with polished shoes and a necktie. What was so special about him? Not experience, neither of you had any. It was his attitude that put him on the payroll instead of you. Attitude, son. A-T-T-I-T-U-D-E. He wanted that job badly enough to shuck the leather jacket, get a haircut, and look in the phone book to find out what this company makes. He did his best to impress me. That's where he edged you out.

You see, Kid, people who hire people aren't "with" a lot of things. We know more about Bing than about Ringo, and we have Stone-Age ideas about who owes whom a living. Maybe that makes us prehistoric, but there's nothing wrong with the checks we sign.

Ever hear of "empathy"? It's the trick of seeing the other fellow's side of things. I couldn't have cared less that you're behind in your car payments. That's your problem and President Johnson's. What I needed was someone who'd go out in the plant, keep his eyes open, and work for me like he'd work for himself. If you have even the vaguest idea of what I'm trying to say, let it show the next time you ask for a job. You'll be head and shoulders over the rest.

You know, Kid, men have always had to get a job like you get a girl: Case the situation, wear a clean shirt, and try to appear reasonably willing. Maybe jobs aren't as plentiful right now, but a lot of us can remember when master craftsmen walked the streets. By comparison you don't know the meaning of "scarce."

You may not believe it, but all around you employers are looking for young men and women smart enough to go after a job in the old-fashioned way. When they find one they can't wait to unload some of their worries on him.

For both our sakes, get eager, will you?

BEWILDERED AND DISCOURAGED BY CARMEL PROPERTY PRICES? SIMPLY UNABLE TO FIND A HOUSE OF REAL VALUE FOR LESS THAN $30,000?

PLEASE DON'T GIVE UP. JUST BROADEN YOUR SCOPE. Carmel isn't the only nice place to live on the Monterey Peninsula even though about seven thousand folks think so. But, several million have the same idea about Los Angeles and New York.

CONSIDER PACIFIC Grove for example, which happens to be located on the same Ocean that attracted you to Carmel. A veritable Persian carpet instead of cypress trees borders the path that winds along the white sand beach. Nice homes and nice people, too. And the loveliest display of poinsettias on the entire Peninsula provide nature's own Christmas decorations.

LET US SHOW YOU A very special house, one that was built by the present owners and has been tenderly cherished for twelve years. Now, these two sisters are making other plans and hope that their spacious two-bedroom home (each with bath), with a family dining room and central heat will be a place of serene comfort for the next occupants.

LISTED AT $26,750. (FAR below the price of similiar property in Carmel.) Located in a pleasant residential area, on a level lot with enough grass and flowers to give it the feeling of a real home. If you are from the East or the Mid-West you will appreciate this and your search for a reasonably priced home in California will have a happy ending.
